

His Kingdom, His Treasure
Win Over Worry series

Truth for Today: We can win over worry when we focus on His Kingdom and His treasure.

We can _____ win over worry when we build our _____ kingdoms.

Jesus, the master teacher, points us to God's _____ over His creation.

The advertising world makes a lot of money trying to flip _____ into perceived _____.

When we build our own kingdoms, it leads to _____, which is a _____.

We can win over worry when we seek _____ His kingdom and righteousness.

Seek first means _____!

We tend to "put our _____ on _____".

Which kingdom are you seeking first? (Be honest) _____

We can win over worry when the _____ is our greatest _____.

The kingdom of heaven is _____!

Did you get into _____ at the beginning? The latest in a long _____ of "can't miss"...

Are you truly willing to _____ for the Kingdom? If He calls you to that, don't _____, but trust & obey!

Some Upcoming MTZ Events

(For a full list of events, please visit www.mountzionchurch.org)

Women's Book Club: next meeting Thurs. Dec. 2; 6pm at Mt Zion Church. December's book is Cast of Characters, by Max Lucado.

Women's Ministry Christmas Brunch: Sat. Dec.4; 10:00am-12:00pm at Mt Zion. Bring a friend & prepare your heart for a Christ-centered Christmas at the Women's Ministry Christmas Brunch. We'll eat brunch, sing carols, and enjoy a brief program. Cost is $10, which includes food & a make & take holiday table decoration. To reserve your spot, sign up in the foyer or email: info@mountzionchurch.org.

Goldenagers Christmas Lunch: Wed. Dec. 8; 11:45am at the church. Come celebrate Christmas with some great food, fellowship & the music of Silver Strings, a local harp & flute duet. Lunch is free! Registration has closed, but contact the church office to see if any spaces have opened up.

Congregational Vote: Sun. Dec. 12, immediately following the worship service. MTZ members will vote on the 2022 budget, new Elders, Deacons & Deaconesses, and a few proposed changes to the church Constitution.